

K-Love is important to the community I reside in as they provide family friendly programming with no commercials or rude DJ's. K-Love is positive and encouraging and our community needs programming like this.